

Aloha!

On behalf of the Anthroposophical Society of Hawai'i, we warmly invite you to take part in our community committed to nurturing spiritual growth and serving humanity. Our Society seeks to provide a range of enriching activities, including workshops, conferences, study groups, retreats, and lectures to engage our members and the wider public.

At the core of the Anthroposophical Society lies the School for Spiritual Science, which strives to continually breathe new life into diverse areas like Waldorf education, Biodynamic agriculture, Anthroposophical medicine, artistic activities, youth initiatives, and social science. This mission, cultivated by ongoing spiritual work and dedication, may enliven our community and the world at large.

Your membership in the Anthroposophical Society has the potential to widen the impact of this work, in Hawai'i, and globally. We strive to contribute to realizing a more enlightening future both for the islands of Hawai'i and the world.

Me ke aloha nō,

Michael Hughes, Chair

Anthroposophical Society in Hawai'i

The Anthroposophical Society in Hawai'i, a non-partisan organization, enthusiastically welcomes individuals from all walks of life, awakening a path of spiritual discovery as a means of personal growth and societal renewal. Through a deep and profound worldview encompassing education, art, science, and social endeavors, the movement aspires to be a flourishing spiritual community grounded on the profound insights of Rudolf Steiner to advance a more enlightened society that reflects the Hawaiian Islands' and the Pacific's unique place in the world.

Our 100-year-old headquarters in Manoa.

Membership Contributions

The Anthroposophical Society relies on members' generous, tax-deductible contributions to sustain activities such as membership programs, publications, outreach efforts, and research at the School of Spiritual Science. A portion of donations also supports the Goetheanum in Switzerland. Visit anthrohawaii.org for more information.

To join or remain a member of the Anthroposophical Society in Hawai'i and the General Anthroposophical Society (Dornach, Switzerland), fill out the attached form and send it with your contribution. Your support is crucial for our community's growth and development.
